This notification is being sent to the Duty Officer network by email only.

The City entered into Monitoring on January 25, 2022, in relation to truck convoys travelling across Canada, heading towards the City of Ottawa, for a demonstration against COVID-19-related mandates. It is anticipated they will arrive in Ottawa on Friday, January 29, at 12:00 hours.

- The Ottawa Police Service are the lead service area for this situation.
- On-call Duty Officers participated in an initial briefing on January 25, 2022, at 13:00 hours, and will continue to be engaged as required, throughout the duration of this situation.
- The Traffic Incident Management Group (TIMG) will be mobilized.
- The National Capital Region Command Centre (NCRCC) will be activated as Area Command.
- Public Information and Media Relations (PIMR) is liaising with Police Communications (the Communications lead for this situation) and impacted service areas to develop internal and external communications, as required.

The Corporate Duty Officer remains available at 613-266-3060 to report impacts to service delivery and / or requests for assistance.

The City remains in Activated Operations for COVID-19 and Monitoring (formerly known as Situational Awareness) for the Cleary Avenue watermain work.

Thank you.
